Use this PC card to connect to wireless carrier networks (AT &T Wireless, T-Mobile, or Sprint) to enable wireless wan data connectivity for your notebook computer. Please note that selecting this card requires a subscription to a wireless carrier network (similar to a mobile phone plan), and will result in a monthly recurring wireless bill from your chosen carrier. Upon receipt of your PC card, simply call your carrier to select your desired rate plan and activate your service. Click "Help Me Choose" for more information.
